THE MYSTERY, AND HUBBERTO AND BEYOND

Two essays read before the Washington Normal Education Society.

By Mrs. EVELYN L. HANSEN.

These essays are the result of ten years' study of the religious of all nations and all ages, and show how constant has been the effort to recognize the feminine element in religious worship, and how they have succeeded in civilization advanced and each time the aggressive force of man has crushed the idea, humanity has fallen back into darkness and barbarism.

Orders accompanied by cash will receive prompt attention.

The garment for women is the result of careful study for years, and while the old and peculiar construction of pockets in vest is acknowledged, that feature is earnestly presented as of great importance in the arrangement of sanitary clothing. For children's wear the "Alpha" is not surpassed by any garment in the market.

ALPHA GARMENTS FOR SPRING AND SUMMER WEAR.

Fabric—heavy and light English Lisle Thread; half bleached, which insures unusual durability in underwear of Summer grade.

Durable in texture, made to fit the figure perfectly, of excellent workmanship. An unusual opportunity to clothe the body lightly, comfortably and healthfully during warm weather.
