My Dear Honorable:

Please pardon the liberty I take in penning you these few lines I am also enclosing a copy of of U.S. Letters patent, that was issued to me Dec. 30th 1913, which is self explanatory; now what I want to do is this: as I am a poor man, and am not able to finance this proposition, I would like to get an order from you for 10,000, or more, Badge Buttons.
The more the better, and a large order such as you might want would enable me to get my proposition on the market. If I can get an order from you for 10,000, Buttons, or more, I will sign you a good Contract, to the effect
