"WE NEVER DISAPPOINT"

136, 138, 140 West Short Street

LEXINGTON, KY.

public affairs, he would sland much beller. You have educated us to expect the president to tack, and he who falls short of your measure, will be a public disappointment. Then The president ought to vary a wice word to allay the hotestant illfuling and at the same time let Rome Know her place in such a way as would prevent exception being Taken, he would immensely please again. He is a notestant, and can not be effected to allend Catholic Ceremonials and hend himself to ever the appearance of mbrigae. All logether the Jublic wants something & check the orgy of peace going on in machington. Kina of $25,000,000
